1 Peter 2:9 ESV / But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

1 Peter 4:10 ESV / 35

As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace:

Isaiah 65:1-3 ESV / YHWH SAYS HERE I AM – AND IS CONTINUALLY SAYING IT. I was ready to be sought by those who did not ask for me; I was ready to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, "Here I am, here I am," to a nation that was not called by my name. I spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices; a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and making offerings on bricks;

Abraham

Genesis 22:1 God's next words were that Abraham should sacrifice Isaac. When Abraham stepped into his call to be the father of the nation of Israel and the father of all who would inherit eternal life, he followed through on his response to God in this verse and story. Abraham says it again in Genesis 22:11 when the Angel of the Lord stops him from slaying Isaac.

Jacob

Genesis 31:11 When God appeared to Jacob in a dream, Jacob said "Here I am." He went on to leave Laban and begin the nation that would be named after him, Israel. In the later part of Jacob's life when God told him to move to Egypt in Genesis 46:2, Jacob said it again. God saved the nation through Joseph when Jacob moved his entire family to Egypt to survive the famine.

Moses

Exodus 3:4 When Moses heard God call to him from the burning bush, he responded, "Here I am." This action begins the Exodus of the Jewish people from Egypt.

Samuel

1 Samuel 3:4 The Lord called to Samuel as a child, while he was living with Eli. He said (several times that evening), "Here I am." Samuel was called while very young and was used by God in many ways, including to anoint both Saul and David, the first kings of Israel.

Isaiah

Isaiah 6:8 This is the beginning of God's commission to Isaiah. He went on to become a great prophet, telling in advance many of the things that were true of the Lord when He came to earth to save us. Isaiah was used greatly by God.

Ananias

Acts 9:10 This is the only occurrence of someone responding to God with "Here I am" recorded using this language in the New Testament. God used Ananias to communicate about Jesus with Paul. At the time of Paul's salvation, he had been terrorizing the Jews because of their faith in Jesus. Ananias needed great courage to present himself to Saul and lay hands on him to make him a part of the body of Christ.
